OFFICIAL CONTEST RULES & REGULATIONS

1. The Red Cross Ball Drop is a fundraiser being held by the American Red Cross. Eligible participants that complete an online reservation or entry form and make a $10 donation per reservation or entry will be assigned a numbered ticket/golf ball.

2. All tickets/golf balls will be assigned by the staff of the American Red Cross, 29 S. Stockwell Road, Evansville. In accordance with State of Indiana Charity Gaming Regulations, online reservations and/or point of sale entries do not constitute a sale until verified and completed by a Red Cross staff member and a numbered ticket/golf ball assigned. All tickets/golf balls are available for view online www.redcrossballdrop.org.

3. Entries must be received by Thursday, June 22nd at 5:00pm CST to qualify. Incomplete reservations or entry forms will not be accepted. The American Red Cross is not responsible for mail or faxes that are lost, stolen, late, illegible, incomplete, damaged, mutilated, misdirected, altered, tampered with or postage due, nor for failure of facsimile communications to reach the Red Cross within the specified time, whether due to busy lines, disconnections, telephone/fax machine malfunctions or any other circumstances.

4. Participants must be USA residents of 18 years of age and older as of date of entry. American Red Cross employees and their immediate families are not eligible to participate. Red Cross Ball Drop will take place on Friday, June 24th, 2011 between 11:30 am and 1:00 pm, weather permitting.

5. A maximum of 2,000 consecutively numbered golf balls will be dropped over a set area at Fendrich Golf Course in Evansville, Indiana.

6. To win, pre-selected judge(s) will measure the distance from the base of the flag to the closest side of the ball to determine five finalists that will all be awarded prizes and each be eligible to win the grand prize of $50,000. Decisions of the judge(s) are final and binding.

7. After five finalists are determined, four pre-selected individuals will be chosen to each choose one of ten envelopes at random, selecting an envelope to determine the golf ball that could win one of the winning finalists $50,000. The first selected individual will draw for the first digit of the winning number, the 2nd person for the 2nd number, 3rd for the 3rd, 4th for the 4th and 5th for the 5th. This process will be overseen by the pre-selected judges and videotapes per Indiana State Charity Gaming Regulations.

8. Verification of eligibility and identity will be required before prizes are released. If a winner cannot be located or fails to claim their prize within 30 days after notification, the prize(s) will be forfeited and awarded to an alternate winner.

9. In the event of adverse weather, an alternate award methodology will be used as per gaming regulations, a winner must be drawn before midnight on Friday, June 24th, 2011.

10. All Proceeds benefit the American Red Cross of Southwestern Indiana and lifesaving service in the community including Disaster Relief, CPR & First Aid Training, Services to Armed Services, Blood Collection and more.

11. Odds of winning are 2,000 to 1 and all entries become the property of the American Red Cross and will not be returned.

12. By entering the contest, the winner consents, without limitation or additional compensation, to the use of his/her name, voice and/or photograph for advertising and/or trade purposes, except where prohibited by law.

13. By participating, each participant releases, discharges, indemnifies, and holds harmless the American Red Cross and its respective officers, directors, employees, agents and representatives, sponsors, event hosts and promotional partners from any and all liability, loss, harm, injury, damage, cost and expense whatsoever arising directly or indirectly from participation in the Red Cross Ball Drop.

14. All federal, state and local laws and regulations apply. Void where prohibited by law. All federal, state and local taxes are the sole responsibility of the individual winner.
